The Library of Congress'

EARLY STATE RECORDS PROJECT

converted from the original microfilm held by the Vincent C. Immel Law Library, Saint Louis University through the generous support of a grant from the Council on Library and Information Resources

NEBRASKA PALLADIUM.

BY D. E. REED, & CO. BELLEVIEW, DOUGLAS CO., NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1854. VOL. I—NO. 9

NEBRASKA PALLADIUM
AND
PLATTE VALLEY ADVOCATE.
BY US PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY
Thos, Morton.
D. E. REED, & COMPANY,
Editors and Proprietors.

TERMS [illegible]

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Original Poetry.

[For the Palladium.]

TO ABBY.

BY MRS A. D. HAMERWAY

[illegible]

Correspondence of the Palladium.

Matters and Things in New York.

New York, Oct. 14.

[illegible]

Selected Matter.

THE SUMMER IS PAST.

In commencing upon the eventful summer from which we have just emerged, the New York Mirror says:

Another summer has past and fled and lost it has been. Fires, failures, ill-starred and death, have brought sorrowing and into us in the midst of thousands will the wa[illegible]ry of silent graves, makes the past more [illegible]s to the coming. Where, [illegible] more be marked as unfortunate, [illegible] the summer opened, [illegible] [illegible] a [illegible] and by award, [illegible] by misfortune wholly to endure [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

ADIUM.

RASKA.

OR 8, 1854.

[illegible] Co. Philadelphia.

Indian Paper Agent.

Dr. M. Mahon & W. Hand, Council Bluffs, Iowa.
[illegible] Jones, P. M., Omaha City, Nebraska.
[illegible] M. H. Clark, Yellow Bank, Genter.
[illegible] Johnson, Esq., Ft. Calhoun, Nebraska.
J. E. Mitchell & Co., Winter Quarters, Nebraska.
[illegible], Loupe Rocky Mound, Nebraska.
Maj. H. D. Downes, Bellevue City, Nebraska.
Lt. Gabriel R. & A. Commander at Fort Laramie, Nebraska.
Lieut. Hardie, U. S. Ag. Commissariat at Fort Kearney, Nebraska.
Gen. Samuel Tabor, Fremont Co., Iowa.
Col. The. Palmer, Mt. Rinetta Grove, Iowa.
Gregg & Gregg, Burlington, Iowa.
William Brown, Esqr., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
Post Master, Fort Des Moins, Iowa.
[illegible] Hall, Esq., Kenosqua, Iowa.
Hon. A. C. Dodge, Burlington, Iowa.
Hon. Thomas Brown, Marysville, Ohio.
L. Rockwell, Esqr., Bellevue, Nebraska.
[illegible], West Point, Iowa.
H. P. Dennis, Tipton, Iowa.
[illegible], Mt. Vernon, Iowa.
[illegible], Chicago, Ill.
[illegible], Chicago, Ill.
[illegible] Miller, Fairfield, Ia.
[illegible], Post Quartermaster, Mass.
[illegible], Asst. Quartermaster, Mass.

BELLEVIEW.

Belleview is situated on the Missouri, six miles above the mouth of the Platte, or Nebraska river. The town has been laid out on a commanding site, with reference to the future wants of the great metropolis of Nebraska. Nature has adorned the site for a commercial city and beautiful, and it is to be hoped it will be among the mighty ones of the earth. Standing at eighty feet above the high water mark of the river, and about eighty feet above the high water mark of the Missouri, it will be among the healthiest cities on the Missouri river. The town is the most eligible and beautiful one that can be found in Nebraska, or indeed in the whole world. The town is surrounded by [illegible] country, extending as far as the eye can reach, and [illegible] with a rich soil, and [illegible] of the most beautiful [illegible] of the Missouri will be [illegible] Bellevue, [illegible] the [illegible] of the Missouri, [illegible] Platte, [illegible] Bellevue [illegible] Platte, [illegible] Bellevue [illegible] Platte, [illegible] Bellevue

PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTIONS!

Subscribers will bear in mind, that we are living at a great distance from the paper market, and that our winter supplies need to be laid in before the close of navigation, and MONEY is needed for this purpose.

To the Subscribers of the St. Mary Gazette.

The Publication will hereafter be sent to the subscribers of the [illegible] which accompanies the [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[

...ral.

...ould advise ...
...ers.

THE ...FARMER.

...d thrifty farmer ...
...les for regulating ...
...ns, which he observes himself, and enforces on all those around him, viz: To do everything in the right place, convert everything to its proper place.

He buys the improved breeds of cattle, horses, sheep and swine, and keeps no more than he can keep well, either in summer or winter.

He always drives on his work, and never lets his work drive him. His animals are never underfed or over-worked.

His out-houses, wood-sheds, poultry-house, pig-pen, wagon-house, spring-house, corn-house, and corn-crib, are nicely whitewashed on the outside, and kept clean and neat within.

He has a tool-house, and a place for every tool in it, which may be wanted for any ordinary purpose, such as mending implements, and making axe, hoe or fork handles, &c., and also for stowing carefully away as will not be wanted until another season.

He has sheds around his barn-yard, to protect his cattle from the weather, and water troughs for the cows and young stock.

He has levers or other [illegible] from his barn-yard to [illegible] his barn-yard [illegible] his barn-yard.

He does not allow [illegible] manure to escape [illegible] streams or ponds [illegible] his barn-yard.

He [illegible] in [illegible] ...

He [illegible] ...

He [illegible] ...

He

NEBRASKA PALLADIUM.

BY D. E. REED, & CO. BELLEVIEW, DOUGLAS CO., NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1854. VOL. 1.—NO. 16.

NEBRASKA PALLADIUM
AND
PLATTE VALLEY ADVOCATE.
PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY
Thos. Morton,
D. E. REED, & COMPANY,
Editors and Proprietors,
BELLEVIEW, DOUGLAS CO., NEBRASKA.

TERMS.—

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Original Poetry.

[For the Palladium.]

THE YOUTH BE MERRY.

BY MRS. A. J. HAMILTON.

A CHAPTER ON FEMALES.

We like to look upon a healthy woman; she is a great work of the nineteenth century. Wherever a pure and healthy woman is found, there is the perfection of beauty. The [illegible] beauty is also found in the [illegible] and healthy woman. The [illegible] is also found in the [illegible] woman. The [illegible] is also found in the [illegible] woman.

NEWSPAPERS.

The [illegible] of newspapers [illegible] is a great [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] of the [illegible] press. [illegible] is a great [illegible] of the [illegible] press.

THE NEWSPAPER PRESS.

The New York Times makes the following interesting remarks on the daily [illegible] of the newspaper press [illegible].

L...

...RASKA.

...ept 18, 1854.

...eapher, S. M. Pet...
W. H. McDonald
...N. Y...City.
C. Pierce, E. W. Carr, Crane & Co., Philadelphia.
W. S. Swymmer, General Newspaper Agent, St. Louis.
Drs. McMahon & Williams, Council Bluffs, Iowa.
A. D. Jones, P. M., Omaha City, Nebraska.
Dr. M. H. Clark, Nebraska Center.
H. D. Johnson, Esq., Ft Calhoun, Nebraska.
J. C. Mitchell & Co, Winter Quarters, Nebraska.
P. M., Pawnee, Loupe Fork, Nebraska.
Maj. H. P. Downs, Nebraska City, Nebraska.
Lt. Gabriel, U. S. A., Commander at Fort Laramie, Nebraska.
Lt. Heath, U. S. A., Commander at Fort Kearney, Nebraska.
C. M., Mount Tabor, Fremont Co., Iowa.
Col. Tho. Farmer, McKissicks Grove, Iowa.
Ogden & Copp, Burlington, Iowa.
William Greene, Esq., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
Post Master, Fort De Moine, Iowa.
Augustus Hall, Esq., Keosaqua, Iowa.
Hon. A. C. Dodge, Burlington, Iowa.
Hon. Thomas Brown, Marysville, Ohio.
J. H. Benner, Esq., Bellevieu, Nebraska.
Jesse West, Tabor, Iowa.
H. P. Bennet, Glenwood, Iowa.
B. Terchuck, St. Mary, Iowa.
M. L. Hollister, Ottawa, Ill.
Silas Tilly, Syracuse, N. Y.
John C. Read, Cunningham, Mass.
Eliel Barnard, Esq., Northampton, Mass.

NEWSPAPER PRESS IN BELLEVIEW!

The Palladium Office was the first Newspaper Establishment put in operation in Nebraska, and the present number, the first ever issued from the territory.—The first Printers in our Office, and who have set up the present number, are natives of three different States, Ohio, Virginia and Massachusetts, Namely: Thos. Morton, Foreman, Columbus, Ohio; A. H. Long, Compositor, Virginia; Henry M. Rood, Apprentice, Massachusetts.

At the very time our Pressmen had the press ready for operation, the following persons were sworn by Isaac Jones, Presidential 3 precinct, to witness the first operation. Namely:

His Excellency, T. B. Cuming, Governor of Nebraska, and Mrs. T. B. Cuming.

Hon. F. Ferguson, Chief Justice of Nebraska, and Mrs. F. Ferguson.

Rev. William Hamilton, of the Ohio and Otoe Mission, and Mrs. Wm. Hamilton, &c.

Major James M. Cornwell, of Mo.

Bird B. Chapman, candidate for Congress from Nebraska Territory.

George W. Holmes, Esq., of Bellevieu.

A. Vanderpuilt, Esq., of Mo.

W. A. Griffin of Bellevieu.

Arthur Ferguson of Bellevieu.

Theodore E. Calhoun, Chicago, Ill.

Miss Mary Hamilton and Miss Anna Hamilton, of Bellevieu.

The first proof-sheet was taken by Fin Leroy Case on Cuming, which was taken from the press and read by His Hon. Chief Justice Ferguson.

This quietly and unostentatious, was the birthdate of Printing in Bellevieu, Nebraska—true, was the Nebraska Palladium inaugurated on the Potomac. The event, it is hoped, is one of very great importance to the future welfare of Nebraska, and will be hailed with heartfelt joy by thousands yet unborn.

The Palladium is issued from the press of the Council Bluffs Bugle, and the publishers of that paper deserve the thanks of the people of Nebraska, for their kindness and promptness in the execution of our job work. Without their assistance, we could not have issued the paper at this time.

The Palladium is issued from the press of the Council Bluffs Bugle, and the publishers of that paper deserve the thanks of the people of Nebraska, for their kindness and promptness in the execution of our job work. Without their assistance, we could not have issued the paper at this time.

As the Iowa Democrats have the right of succession, to keep the ball rolling and some of us will remember the 18th of the light of ... [illegible]

Removal of the Office.

We hope our readers will excuse the late appearance of this sheet. We have been removing our office from K. Mary on which account, we were about a the regular time for the issue of our paper, about three days—and for the same reason, we shall issue no paper next week from Tuesday next.

THANKSGIVING IN NEBRASKA.

We were born and educated in New England, and we love her institutions, among which, is that of appointing an annual Thanksgiving Day. We hope this time-honored ordinance, will not be overlooked by the Governor of Nebraska.—A Proclamation from the Governor, for a Day of Thanksgiving, we doubt not, would meet the warmest response from the people.

ST. MARY.

St. Mary, situated opposite Bellevieu, is one of the prettiest and best town-sites on the Missouri river, and is being settled rapidly, by an intelligent and wealthy population. There is a good steamboat landing on both sides of the river at that

LOCATION OF THE CAPITOL.

The question concerning the location of the Capitol, seems to be the all-absorbing one that now pervades the minds of the politicians, and the people of Nebraska.—The number of sites anxious to secure its location, are six—namely—Ft. Kearny, Plattsmouth, Bellevieu, Omaha City, Florence and Ft. Calhoun. Each of these places has its friends and advocates, and more or less hope of success. The places occupying the most central position and having superior claims so far as position is concerned, are Bellevieu and Omaha City. Between these places, more than any others, the contest for the location is strong and sharp—neither is expected to yield in the least to the other. Of the two, we think Bellevieu has claims to the location, which far outweigh those of the rival, that has sprung up to seize the prize which nature designed for herself. Her claims to priority of settlement, and of being a more accessible point, we think cannot be disputed. In the next place, it cannot be disputed that its claims are superior, when the grandeur and beauty of the site itself is taken into account. We claim for Bellevieu, the most central position—the most extensive and beautiful site—the best surrounding country—the best steamboat landing—the most easy and ample supply of wood, stone and other building materials.

We claim also, that the location of the Capitol at Bellevieu, would be more satisfactory to the people, than either of the other points specified, and particularly Omaha City or Ft. Calhoun. A vote of the people, would give either of the remaining points the preference over the contest mentioned. Bluffs is a powerful city for the Capitol, and has a better landing than Omaha City, as the Platte mouth and Ft. Kearney.

In addition to the advantages of Bellevieu already enumerated, there is one which, if it were not in actual point of fact, is as easy obtained by a vote of the people, as any other—and that is the fact that Bellevieu is the present seat of the Territorial Legislature. Already the Territorial archives are here, and all the necessary buildings for the Legislature Assembly that is to be, are already here. [illegible]

For the Democrat.

To the Democracy of Nebraska.

[illegible]

NEBRASKA AND KANSAS COMPARED.

A great number of persons from all parts of the United States are either making the necessary arrangements to move with their families to the new Territories of Kansas or Nebraska, as soon in the spring as channels of trade in this direction shall be opened, and thousands more are anxiously considering the propriety of imigrating; but for want of some general and reliable information are not able to determine to which they had better direct their attention. Having traveled extensively in both, and taken great pains to decide this question for ourselves, we have concluded to offer, for the benefit of others, the result of our investigations.

In the first place, Nebraska is about six times as large as Kansas—containing about 600,000 square miles, or enough Territory for twelve first class States, and embracing within its limits all the elements of wealth included within the States between this and the Atlantic ocean, and between Virginia and Maine. Here in all conscience is

"Room enough for all,
Room in the prairie wood'd tent in the hall."

The most desirable portion of the Territories is adjoining the States of Iowa and Missouri, and until that is filled with the whites, there will be no sufficient inducement to carry settlements far into the interior. In Nebraska, the Indian title has been relinquished from the mouth of the Big Sioux river down in the South Iowa, and about one hundred miles in the West. Within this district there will be but one small Indian reservation, and that one near the South line so that the settlements may go on business along the line of Iowa and Missouri, and be perfectly secure from all red phyzlers by three months' time. Not so in Kansas. The best part of that Territory is that [illegible] Missouri river, below Fort Leavenworth, the lower valley of the Kansas river as far up the Smoky Hill fork, the lower valley of the Missouri, down the Osage river. [illegible] Indians, has somewhat less than one thousand square miles [illegible] and expresses a determination [illegible] there at all hazards. [illegible] the Indians [illegible] the Territory, and [illegible] the Territory, and [illegible] the Territory, and ☞ "Conversation should be pleasant without sourrility, witty without affectation, learned without pedantry, novel without falsehood."

☞ "Gentlemen never swear." So said Washington, who, we believe, never allowed profane swearing while in command of the army of the revolution.

BUILDING MATERIAL.

We commend the following to the consideration of builders, and those who may wish to build. Good material for the manufacture of the kind of brick referred to, are abundant in a place where enterprising men would succeed in their manufacture, would have a fortune at command.

"We were shown [illegible] says the Wisconsin Telegraph, as a specimen of material for the construction of [illegible] is a preparation of sand [illegible] moulds, and operated upon by [illegible] press. The specimens we saw [illegible] three times the size of [illegible] mon brick. They are [illegible] square in the face as usual, [illegible] the length and about one [illegible] of the brick. In the machine with [illegible] sand dried, as they [illegible] about twice the [illegible] as granite. These stones [illegible] equal to a good [illegible] and have been [illegible] the weather, [illegible] and exposure [illegible] them particularly [illegible] and as cheaply as [illegible] county.

☞ The Dem[illegible] the West [illegible] houses of the [illegible] by breaking in [illegible] sash, and [illegible]

☞ Dr. Easterly [illegible] pounding the [illegible] Dr. Swaim's [illegible]

☞ [illegible] Dr. Easterly's Cough Syrup

☞ [illegible] by the Forests [illegible] owned all last [illegible] paths. The [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] Journal.

[illegible] Wednesday morning, July 5, 1854.

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [